

Annual Creston Neighborhood Block Captain Meeting

FORECLOSURE RESPONSE
www.ForeclosureResponse.org

Kym Spring from Foreclosure Response will give a presentation on the effects of foreclosure in Kent county and where we can send our neighbors for help.

Officer Jon Kraczon will present on the practice of Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) and simple applications that Block Capts. can use on their blocks.

Officer Shelly Weiss will be in to speak about her work as GRPD's Housing/Code Compliance officer, and what we as neighbors can do to help maintain a clean neighborhood.

Community Officer Kristen Gibbons will present on effective crime reporting, how we as neighbors can maximize our police services and outcomes by being more vigilant and detailed about our observances. Followed by some Q&A.

Participate in Creston's
Connect-a-Thon membership contest. For every new membership that a block captain brings to the meeting or refers to sign-up on the website, they will receive a raffle ticket and be eligible for the drawing at the end of the night.

Date: 4/27/10

Time: 5:30pm Pizza Dinner

6:00pm Meeting Start

Location: Creston Christian Reformed Church—238 Spencer
St. NE—Enter from Spencer St.

Hello Block Captains,

Your presence is appreciated at Creston's Annual Block Captain meeting. The goal of this meeting is to keep you all informed on how you can keep your blocks healthy and safe. Please RSVP so that we can get a head count for dinner. If you cannot make the meeting, please send an interested neighbor from your block in your place.

Any Questions? RSVP by 4/19/10

Call CNA— 454-7900 or email:
mbrown@crestongr.com