

Media Advisory for November 10, 2010

Contact:

Deborah Eid 616.454.7900
deid@crestongr.com

Creston Neighborhood Association and Aquinas College Address the Neighborhood Impact of Housing Crisis

When: Wednesday, November 10, 2010
2:00pm

Where: 213 Burr Oak Avenue N.E., Grand Rapids, 49505

Why: The Creston Neighborhood Association (CNA) and Aquinas conducted a collaborative study on resident access to housing resource programs.

CNA is taking steps to reach out to renters by educating them on their rights in housing and get them involved in the community.

Details: Kathy Kremer Ph.D., Associate Professor of Sociology at Aquinas College, will be discussing her recently published study on neighborhood identity and home ownership.

Deborah Eid, CNA Executive Director will be discussing the importance of ensuring safe, quality and affordable housing for families who are renting in the Creston neighborhood with a new focus on single family homes.

A Creston resident will share her perspective on the changes in the neighborhood.

For more information about the Creston Neighborhood Association, visit www.crestongr.com

###